Subject: Schedule

I appreciate that you are used to seeing the schedule set up in a particular order. Unfortunately, the Scheduling software that I use puts both Breads together. I have been retyping the schedule every month so you would see it the way it used to be but I decided to let it print the way it does and label each position so that you will know where you should stand. I hope it doesn't cause any confusion. This is the last schedule I will be doing and I don't want Fr. Pierre, who will probably do it for December, to have to retype the entire schedule.
