THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL

Some Sadducees, those who deny that there is a resurrection, came forward and put this question to Jesus, saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us, If someone's brother dies leaving a wife but no child, his brother must take the wife and raise up descendants for this brother. Now there were seven brothers; the first married a woman but died childless. Then the second and the third married her, and likewise all the seven died childless. Finally the woman also died. Now at the resurrection whose wife will that woman be? For all seven had been married to her." Jesus said to them, "The children of this age marry and remarry; but those who are deemed worthy to attain to the coming age and to the resurrection of the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. They can no longer die, for they are like angels; and they are the children of God because they are the ones who will rise. That the dead will rise even Moses made known in the passage about the bush, when he called out, 'Lord,' the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob; and he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive."

Luke 20:27-38

Is God your first love?

Today we are brought into the life of heaven in a way that bridges understanding through connecting our concept and lived experience of marriage in heaven. Marriage is celebrated today as the archtype or paradigm of relationship between man and woman and the relationship of Christ to His bride - the Church. Finally and most profoundly, the relationship for an eternity in heaven between us and the God who made us.

FURNISHING THE PARISH HOUSE

The new residence for Fr. Daniel is under construction, and hopefully, he will be occupying it in January. However, he needs furniture. We are able to use the dining room set from the original rectory, but most of the other furniture he currently has is either unusable or unavailable. We need your help to make the Parish House livable. There is a poster showing the furniture Fr. Daniel needs. He is also registered at Kohls and J.C. Penney for kitchen equipment, linens, sheets, towels, and other assorted items. You can either pick up the list at Kohls or J.C. Penney or shop on-line at kohls.com or at jcp.com. Any of these items should be kept at your residence until the housewarming. Many thanks to all who have donated already to furnishing the new Parish House.
